Timo Marc – Enthusiasm shared

Timo Marc, a professional magician with charisma, charm and talent for comedy transmits to his audience enthusiasm and zest for life. With his versatile magic art, the award-winning entertainer creates tremendous amazement, bringing people together in his winning style.

Starting out as a professional magician, Timo Marc began to perform internationally. He has been touring the world and acted on stage in over 40 countries ever since 2006. However, his attachment to his homeland and down-to-earth manner always led him back to his roots.

Besides winning the German championship twice, Timo Marc was awarded the "Sarmoti Award" in Las Vegas by Siegfried & Roy. In Monte Carlo, Monaco, he won the "Golden Wand" at the Magic Festival - one of the world's highest awards in the art of magic. He was awarded further prizes as a winner in Shanghai, Paris, Moscow and Seoul, among others.

Timo Marc's extensive repertoire for big and small events ranges from selected classical elements of magic to uniquely developed creations of his own, not performed by any other magician. With his singular talent to reinterpret well-known tricks, Timo Marc puts his very own congenial stamp on his shows, thus creating a special closeness to his audience.

His enjoyment of his magic skills is always noticeable - even off stage. To Timo with his flexible and accommodating approach, the customer always takes center stage. It is his professional appearance and open-mindedness that never fail to create a wonderfully balanced atmosphere between client, audience and artist.

Why not come along and experience enthusiasm shared - by and with Timo Marc.
